

Justin

21, College Student

Young college boy who has a bigger dog. Lives in an apartment off his college campus and really wants to stay active in the community, and also wants to make his dog a big part of his journey to make more friends. He's had trouble connecting with other on-campus dog-owners. Most of which is due to his hectic schedule that makes it hard to connect with others effectively.